
(a) Records against described species for invertebrate and small marine groups (circles, line) and vertebrates (triangles).
(b) Records against census abundance for the ten groups with independent censuses. (c) Errors-in-variables model of log records on log abundance, log body mass and log described species.